

Vision - Faith - Courage

Japari is a small independent Grade R – 7 Preparatory Day School for children who learn differently

Japari School seeks to appoint an

INTERMEDIATE PHASE TEACHER (specialising in English)

Full Time Post

TO START JANUARY 2019

The successful candidate will:

- have suitable professional qualifications and appropriate educational experience in a remedial environment
- be a person of integrity, vision and energy with strong interpersonal skills
- have an energetic and progressive approach to teaching and learning
- have a sound understanding of the CAPS Curriculum and knowledge of other curricula and international trends in education
- have relevant Intermediate Phase teaching experience – greater than five years
- have a sound knowledge of ICT and multi-media applications
- be willing to promote an appropriate balance between the academic, cultural and sporting aspects of the school
- be registered with SACE
- be in possession of a Police Clearance Certificate

- Written applications should be submitted, together with curriculum vitae, relevant testimonials, proof of SACE registration, a copy of the Police Clearance Certificate and the names and addresses of three traceable referees to:
The Head of Japari School, 1 Dundalk Avenue, Parkview, Johannesburg, 2193
- Electronic applications may be sent to the following email address: deputy@japari.co.za
- Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

Closing Date: 31 July 2018